

BUILD YOUR OWN WELCOME WAGON!

In America's Dreaming, Mr. Downs creates a wagon filled with books to help remind his students they are not alone. If you could fill up your Welcome Wagon, what books would you add? What other comforting things could you put in the wagon? Draw and write in the space below.

AMERICA'S DREAM

In America's Dreaming, America learns to be strong from reading the stories of real people in history.

Who is someone you admire? How did they overcome their struggles to create change?

Write about it on the lines below.
